Policy Title: C5 – Directors' Code of Conduct

Adopted/Revised: April 1, 2011/ March 4, 2014/ September 15, 2018

We each commit ourselves to ethical, professional and lawful conduct.

1. Every director is responsible at all times for acting in good faith, in a manner which they reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the Cooperative, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.
2. Directors must demonstrate unconflicted loyalty to the interests of the Cooperative's members. This accountability supersedes any conflicting loyalty such as that to advocacy or interest groups, membership on other boards or staffs, and the personal interest of any director acting as an individual consumer or member.
 - a. There will be no self-dealing or any conduct of private business or personal services between any director and the Cooperative except as procedurally controlled to assure openness, competitive opportunity and equal access to "inside" information.
 - b. Every year (once the new Board is seated), every director will sign the Code of Conduct Agreement form and will verbally report to the whole board all actual and potential conflicts. Every director will immediately report any subsequent actual or potential conflicts to the whole board. At the same time, all Board members will submit to a background check to verify suitability for Board service. Such background checks to include the following disqualifying checks:
 - i. Bankruptcies more recent than 10 years (only to preclude the director from holding a position with signing authority)
 - ii. Felony convictions
 - iii. Misdemeanor convictions involving financial issues or dishonesty
 - iv. Other convictions or pleas involving crimes that would cause issues (for example: sexual assault.) The full board to vote on the particular conviction, should a dispute arise¹.
 - c. When the Board is to decide on an issue about which a director has an unavoidable conflict of interest, that director shall abstain from the conversation and the vote.
 - d. A director who applies for employment at the Cooperative must first resign from the Board.

¹ Given the impossibility of listing every potential violation, the Board must take a good-faith decision as such matters arise.

- e. Any director who is also a paid employee has the same duties and responsibilities as any other director, and has the additional duty of clearly segregating staff and Board responsibilities. Any director who is also a paid employee will resign from the Board if and when their employment ends².
3. Directors may not attempt to exercise individual authority over the organization.
 - a. When interacting with the GM or employees, directors must carefully and openly recognize their lack of authority.
 - b. When interacting with the public, the press, or other entities, directors must recognize the same limitation and the inability of any director to speak for the Board except to repeat explicitly stated Board decisions.
 4. Directors will respect the confidentiality appropriate to issues of a sensitive nature and must continue to honor confidentiality after leaving Board service.
 5. Directors will prepare for, attend, and participate fully in all Board meetings and trainings.
 6. Directors will support the legitimacy and authority of the Board's decision on any matter, irrespective of the director's personal position on the issue. Board members shall not campaign against Board-sponsored measures.
 7. Any director who does not follow the code of conduct policy shall resign from the Board if requested to do so by a 2/3 majority vote of the remaining Board.

² This is intended to remove possibility of post-employment mischief. The Board may decide by majority vote to waive this requirement in a particular instance, if the Board is satisfied that this protection is not needed.

Policy Type: Board-Management Relationship

Policy Title: D1 – Unity of Control

1. Decisions or instructions of individual directors, officers, or committees are not binding on the GM except in rare instances when the board has specifically authorized this power.
2. In the case of directors or committees requesting information or assistance without board authorization, the GM may refuse any requests.

The General Manager is the boards only link to operational achievement and conduct.

1. The board will view GM performance as identical to organizational performance so that the co-op's accomplishment of board-stated ends and avoidance of board-proscribed means will be viewed as successful GM performance.

Policy Title: D4 – Monitoring GM Performance

2. The board will acquire monitoring information by one or more of three methods:
 - a. by internal report, in which the GM discloses interpretations and compliance information to the board;
 - b. by external report, in which an external, disinterested third party selected by the board assesses compliance with board policies; or
 - c. by direct board inspection, in which a designated director or committee assesses compliance with the policy criteria.
3. In every case, the standard for compliance will be any reasonable GM interpretation (as described by operational definitions and metrics) of the board policy being monitored. The board is the final arbiter of reasonableness but will always judge with a reasonable person test rather than with interpretations favored by individual directors or by the board as a whole.
4. The GM is compliant with a policy if s/he presents a reasonable interpretation and adequate data that demonstrate accomplishment of that interpretation.
5. The board will monitor all policies that instruct the GM. The board can monitor any policy at any time by any method but will ordinarily follow the schedule outlined in the Board Annual Calendar.
6. The Board's annual evaluation of the General Manager, based on a summary of monitoring reports received from October through September will be completed by November 1. The Board will make its decisions concerning the evaluation and the employment contract no later than November 1.
